

CENSUS TAKERS.

The Albany Journal scores the census takers of New York in the following sharp manner:

The men who took the Federal census of 1890 were sworn to do their duty.

The men who took the Federal census of 1890 were liable to punishment for violating the rules and regulations prescribed for them.

Whenever any complaints of over counting, as in Minneapolis and St. Paul, on the one hand, or of under counting, as in the eight ward of Albany, on the other, were made, examinations were instituted and errors were corrected.

Moreover, let it be remembered that the census enumerators who did the Federal counting were paid not for their days of service, but a certain sum for each name; and the selfish consideration presented to each enumerator was to make an over count rather than an under count.

The outcries against the federal census of 1890 came from all over the country and were almost wholly protests against alleged under counting. They had their chief source in the disappointment of men who were over-estimating the population of boom towns and the real estate speculators and in political prejudice.

The men who have taken the New York census of 1892 are unknown, unsworn and utterly unreliable.

The men who have taken the New York census are not liable to punishment, and the failure to include a penalty in the law not only made the opportunity for fraud but placed a premium on its commission. The result is the padding of enumeration rolls on a wholesale scale.

There has been no order; no publicity; no responsibility; no accuracy, in the taking of the New York census. The entire enumeration scheme was conceived in iniquity and executed with the deliberation and shameless villainy which has characterized the operations of the Hill machine.

In the cities of New York and Brooklyn thousands of fraudulent names have been placed on the rolls, while in the interior the residents of the snow clad hills and snow locked hills and woods have not been put in the list.

The slums of New York and Brooklyn are to be given additional and fraudulent power. That is the essence of the matter.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

That Hawaiian civilization is simply a surface polish on the old heathen barbarism is shown by the horrible murders committed by a kahuna, or witch. This woman believed she possessed superior natural powers, so she set about killing all those among her relatives who failed to pay her proper respect. Fear and superstition made her family assist her in acts of atrocious cruelty, and now no less than twelve persons are in jail for conspiracy in the murder of three natives and the torture of a fourth. A severe example should be made of the woman, for unless she be hanged she will be sure to find imitators.—S. F. Chronicle.

Mme. de Barrois, the widow of the renowned General Justo Rufino de Barrois, who was at one time President of Guatemala, is about to intrust her hand and her fortune to Jose Martinez de Roda, a Marquis of Spain. The Marquis reached New York by La Campana on Monday last week. Mme. Barrois' fortune is generally reputed to be worth $10,000,000 at the lowest estimate and her jewels are among the most costly in the world.

Mrs. Mary Sheldon Barnes, wife of Professor Earl Barnes of the Chair of Education in the Leland Stanford Jr. University, has been appointed Assistant Professor in Modern History in that University. Mrs. Barnes is widely known both as a teacher and a writer of historical subjects.

Hulda Friedrichs, a young German woman, has been engaged by the Fall Mall Gazette to make a tour of the United States for the purpose of writing up the social institutions of the country, especially their effect on woman's condition.

C. F. McGlashen has again assumed charge of the Truckee Republican.
